Dear Roy:

I would like to recognize two of our younger residents as Volunteers of the Month. Sam Hubbell, 138 Enfield Center Rd., son of John and Jennifer Hubbell, and Trevor Alling, 203 Hines Rd., son of Tammy Alling, went above and beyond in helping set up and run our 2012 Enfield Harvest Festival.

Trevor helped us pick pumpkins during the week before and was so good with the younger kids, patiently showing them how to use the clippers and encouraging them to pick up the heavy pumpkins and carefully get them on the truck. He also stepped in when ever it was too hard for the younger kids. He changed his personal plans with his father to help us Friday and Saturday, willingly doing whatever was necessary to get set up and running.

Sam also was so helpful in setting up the Festival Friday night and helping us run the event on Saturday. He showed great initiative and thought of selling games tickets by walking around and hawking tickets. Not having a change box did not deter him. He figured out how to get some change from Rose at the main table and took total charge of returning monies to her periodically.

Both these young men's cheery demeanor, helpful suggestions and complete willingness to take on and complete the assigned tasks made our event happen so much more smoothly.

I think their dedication and stick-to itiveness deserves some public recognition.

Very truly yours,

Ann S. Rider
