Gear up for fall -

Most of us have had our fair share of rain this summer, and then some! Backyard gardens are thriving, and those who live near gardeners may be experiencing the mysterious arrival of zucchini on their porches. Farm fields are looking pretty good, although you can see areas where the ground has been too wet for corn. Pretty soon their will be a lot of farm equipment on the roads, as harvest season is upon us. Please keep an eye out and be extra careful when driving near farm equipment. The few extra seconds it takes to slow down and be safe is absolutely worth it.

There's lots going on in Enfield, as usual - The upcoming Harvest Festival, of course—be sure and get your quilt raffle tickets, and there's also the Grange's Roast Pork Dinner on September 26th and Election Dinner in November (yum), the Senior Citizen trips, and something you may not have heard about, the Enfield Volunteer Fire Company's (EVFC) Scholarship: two $500 scholarships are available to Enfield residents.

The EVFC-sponsored, bi-monthly Red Cross Blood Drive has been quite successful, but they would love to see more members of the community to "drop by for a pint". There's usually some home-made chili, and other snacks and drinks, to fortify you after your donation.

Finally, Town Historian Sue Thompson's article is as interesting as always, but this issue she's managed to "dig up" some really fun facts about our community's past. I always love getting the chance to read her submission first!

Anticipating the smell of fall,
Debbie Teeter, Editor

Hello Neighbors,

Our summer weather seems to be here (complete with thunderstorms)! With the heat comes dangers just as real as the cold. Make sure you stay hydrated. Keep clean, cold water available for your pets. Wear sunblock or cover up when you are going to be in the sun. STAY HYDRATED! Dehydration can lead to stroke, heart attacks, heat stroke, etc... And unfortunately, nasty winter weather is just around the corner. Please be safe and check on each other.

We have had a full summer of events here in Enfield. The ECC Summer Camp is being held in Tremam Park for six weeks again this summer. On Saturday August 15th from 9am-2pm was the Annual Community Yard Sale. We had many people request to be put on the map, and even more that didn't. It was a beautiful day with a lot of traffic.

SAVE THE DATE!!! The Harvest Festival will be on October 10th, 2015. Live music from Under Construction! Vendors, cake wheel, chicken BBQ, games, PTA Book Fair, and more! If you are interested in vendor space, please contact me at 607-279-4702 (or e-mail cbailey525@yahoo.com).

We have also hired a new Teen Program Manager! Lauren moved on to expand her horizons. We at ECC wish her luck. Our new program manager has world-wide experience, yet grew up in an even more rural area than Enfield. Please welcome Josie Bonham if you see her out getting familiar with our area. As always, please be safe and happy! Look out for each other and be good neighbors.

Enfield Community Council Summer Day Camp

It is unbelievable to think that the six week summer camp is over. As we all know summer's "fly by", but I feel this season whizzed right past me!

The camp had a total of 108 campers and 10 Counselors-In –Training (CITs). Camp at Treman Park, once again, was a pleasure, relaxing - a genuine "camp" feeling. Besides the daily specialized camp activities: arts and crafts, forgotten arts (cooking, music, games, sewing projects), sports, hiking, science, creek exploring, playground time and swimming there were "Special Days". These days consisted of a presentation from the Tin Can Fantasy Factory, ice cream sundaes, luau day, tie-dye making, pj/movie day, obstacle course and the traditional Peanut Hunt. There were field trips to Hangar Theater, Sciencenter, Taughannock Falls, Greenwood Park, Bowling at the new Atlas bowling alley in Tburg, Clute Park for roller skating, Watkins Glen swim pool, Corning Museum of Glass and Park Station.

There were very few rain days to keep us in the pavilion and even those days did not keep us in all day or did not keep us out of the light rains. The campers were on the go or busy most of the time.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank: EddyDale Farms for the donation of the corn and melons for the luau, United Way for additional funds to help with the ongoing of camp this season, Town of Enfield for the contracted yearly funds for programming, all the staff for a wonderful year, parents and campers for participating in our camp, the 2 community member donors for the "Send a Child to Camp" scholarship fund and lastly Treman State Park for accommodating and being very amiable hosts to the Community Council for another successful camp season. I will see many of you throughout the school year, some in passing socially and hopefully all at the Harvest Festival (proceeds benefit the camp).

The Enfield Quilt Raffle

This year's Raffle Quilt, again created by community members JoAnn Huddle and Bronwyn Mohlke, is a lovely queen size, "quilt-as-you-go" style quilt. The black and white picture of course doesn't do it justice, but the darker colors are a rich, vibrant purple and a medium shade of forest green. The lighter colors are cream, violet and patterns in peach, and peach, violet, and green. The reverse side is the dark purple

You can see the quilt, and buy tickets, at the Town Hall during the Town Clerk's weekday office hours. It will also be on display, with tickets for sale, at various locations around the community up until the Harvest Festival on October 10th. Tickets may also be purchased from Enfield Community Council members.

Tickets are $1 each or six tickets for $5.

Enfield Youth Programming

To the Youth and Families of Enfield:

Hello! I'm Josie Bonham, the new youth program manager for Enfield. I'm looking forward to sharing my knowledge and passion with our community as I plan and prepare for programs this year!

I grew up in a tiny town in rural Pennsylvania. It was a beautiful place to grow up, with farms, wildlife, trees, and mountains galore. Although known for its natural beauty, there wasn't a whole lot to do in the community otherwise (especially as a teenager!), which is why I'm so excited to have the opportunity to develop programs for youth in my new community. I've taught students environmental education and studied wildlife all over, including South America, Alaska, California, Utah, Pennsylvania, and New York. I love to teach and learn, and some of my interests include animals (especially cats!), nature awareness, conservation, forests, water, cooking and baking, hiking, camping, museums, enjoying the little things in life, and just having fun.

Since I'm brand new to Ithaca, I can't wait to get to know our wonderful community and the people and resources in it. As for programming, I'd love to keep and expand on some of the successful and fun programs from last year as well as come up with some of my own. You'll be able to find information on upcoming programs on the Rural Youth Services website at <http://ccetompkins.org/4-h-youth/rural-youth-services/rys-program-sites/enfield>. Also, feel free to contact me at 607-272-2292 ext. 226 or at jb2462@cornell.edu.

I'm looking forward to working with all of you!"

Remembering Our Past through Cemeteries - Sue Thompson, Enfield Town Historian

The Enfield Cemetery Committee has placed their attention to restore and recover full access to Christian Cemetery, on Enfield Main Road. We met a few weeks ago to continue the repair work started by Roger Laue and others. The first project was to retrieve the headstones left in the hedgerow. Many of the stones we found were broken (weather damaged before they were placed there) or "foot stones". Our next project will be to repair some of the broken head stones. Watch for the next "work" meeting announcement on our town website: www.townofenfield.org.

Enfield history and tradition comes to light in Enfield's Christian Cemetery, which spans nearly two centuries. The cemetery's oldest stone is that of the son of David and Rebecca Beach who died September 7, 1827. The Christian Church connected to the cemetery was established in 1821. The church building was located in front of the cemetery, its doors very close to what is now State Route 327, Enfield Main Road. You can see where the church was located by viewing an aerial photo at <https://aerial-ny.library.cornell.edu> photo ARU1-45, June 30, 1938. It is unclear if there were two church buildings or the first building was just renovated in 1880. The building was sold and taken down in 1938 and transported to the west side of Cayuga Lake and converted into cottages and docks by Fred Frazer. The cemetery was taken care of by families with relatives buried in the cemetery. The care became very erratic and was then turned over for care to the Town of Enfield.

The back section of the cemetery contains the oldest stones, and some of the most unique and artistic as well. Though some of the oldest stones have fallen victim to the ravage of time and weather, one has been preserved from 1851 which belongs to Judah Baker. Judah was born in 1763 and was one of the first settlers in the town. Judah enlisted from Fredericktown, Dutchess County, New York, in the Revolutionary War as a Private in the fall of 1777; he was 14 years old at the time. With his unit he helped the guard locate "deserters" in Morristown. He was dismissed from Fishkill and returned home after 3 months. He again enlisted in 1779 for 3 months. He was in the infantry 2nd NY regiment of Regular Troops with Captain Hottete. During that time he was located at Stoney Point, Hackensack, and then back to Stoney Point and home to Fredericktown. He was married to Lydia Chase, who is also buried in the cemetery. Some epitaphs are caustic or loving remembrances and one or two are even cryptic messages to those who remain. John Newbury's stone of 1830 reads: Stop and see as you pass by as you are now so once was I As I am now so you must be prepare to die and follow me.

Words inscribed on the Reverend Jabez Chadwick stone "Servant of God well done. Rest from thy loved employ. The battle fought, the victory won. Enter thy masters joy." This indicates his passion in life of his religious belief. Reverend Chadwick was ordained in 1801 and was a Presbyterian minister in Salem, Massachusetts. After serving the church there for many years he moved with his family to Camillus, NY. It was noted after this move he was mentioned as "first minister" in many local communities helping to organize the churches in Dryden, Groton, Burdett, Enfield, and Genoa. He broke from the Presbyterians due to his change of view on the mode of baptism and joined the Baptists. He published many small publications on religion. The 'Bible Dictionary', a dollar book of about 400 pages, was the largest of his works. He received his qualifications as a teacher and taught in many community "common schools". He died at Enfield Center on February 20, 1857, the age of 78 years after being sick for one week.

One last remembrance of those buried in this cemetery is that of Hattie Ford (1863-1864) daughter of James and Harriet Ford, she is watched over by a small white lamb head stone. These are few of the people who left their mark upon our town, and its mark which makes our town special.

ENFIELD VALLEY GRANGE

Lovin' the sun! Doubt there is anyone not appreciating this beautiful summer we have been blessed with. I for one will not complain about it being too warm, especially after the very cold, long 2014-15 winter. Let's hope that we have a milder 2015-16 winter!

Our community suffered the loss of a three tremendous individuals. Dawn George passed after a long struggle with leukemia. Not only was Dawn a Grange member, but also served our community as a Town Planning Board member. Rhonda Connors, Rhonda was a staple in our community. If anyone needed assistance, Rhonda was the go to person. Also, John York, a Grange member and community resident. John was a quiet person with a kind heart. Our hearts and prayers go out to the families for these three outstanding individuals. They will be forever in our thoughts.

Our Farmers' Market opened on Thursday, June 25th. Market has been open each Thursday, from 4:00 – 6:30 p.m. If you, or someone you know, is interested in being a vendor, please just stop in. There is a $5.00 table, or outside stand, fee for each participating vendor. Our desire has been to make this a very marketable event for our community. Please visit us, or better yet, bring your overflow of plants, veggies, etc. to sell. Market will be open until the last Thursday in October. For information on the market contact Sandra Trutt at 273-4884. Also, we are looking for market members to be more involved in the structure and to assist in soliciting more vendors. If we cannot get more vendors involved we will not continue next year. So, bring your over abundance of produce, etc. to the Grange. If you cannot stay to sell, bring your price list and we will sell for you.

The Craft Club will have their first get together on Sunday, Sept. 13th @ 1 p.m. At this meeting plans for projects will be discussed. Following months will meet the 1st Sunday of each month. For further information please contact Sandra Trutt, 273-4884.

Upcoming Grange Events – Mark you calendar:

Roast Pork Dinner – Saturday, Sept. 26th. Serving time: 4:00-6:30 p.m. Roast pork, parsley potatoes, peas, pickled beets. Price: $9.00-Adults, $5.00-children 4-10, 3 & under-free.

Election Night Dinner – Tuesday, November 3rd. 4:00 – 7:00 p.m. Roast turkey, and all the trimmings, plus homemade desserts.

Annual Holiday Bazaar – Saturday, November 21st, (9:00a.m.- 3:00p.m.). Wide variety of handmade crafts, and baked goods, including jewelry, scarves, hats, baby sweaters, baby blankets, baby toys, gifts in a jar, ornaments, and lots more for all your holiday needs. Lunch & beverages will be available. Don't miss this!

2016 Breakfasts schedule:

Saturday, Jan. 9th
Saturday, Feb. 6th

Saturday, Mar. 5th
Saturday, Apr. 2nd

Saturday, May 7th

From time to time members have been asked by others; "what does the Grange do"? Yes, we volunteer our time to earn monies to keep our building in order, by putting on events, and serving our community in any way we can. But, as we sat and gathered our thoughts, our members stated their thoughts on why they are members:

- "We enjoy seeing our community members (and non community members) attending our events".
- "As the only Grange building in Tompkins County, we take pride in that. The events, dinners, etc. we host help us to maintain the building for as long as we can".
- "Like being part of the community, a community that cares about its residents. Would like to see our community organizations come together, to work for a common cause".
- "Brainstorming ideas for more ways we can come together, to be more active in our community, and as a way to earn monies for our building, and other events that benefit our town".
- "We live here, we want others to enjoy this community as much as we do".
- "Helping others when the need arises".
- "The Grange is not just about agriculture, we enjoy serving others".

If you, or anyone you may know, is looking for space to host events such as; weddings, baby showers, receptions, family reunions, memorials, or any other event, the Grange can be a great place to host those special occasions. For information on Grange rentals please contact Sandra Trutt, 273-4884.

Please keep watch on the Town of Enfield web site (www.townofenfield.org) for updates to Grange sponsored events. Community support is appreciated by joining us at our Grange meals and events throughout the year, and contributes to our Building Fund. Of course, donations are always appreciated and can be sent to our treasurer: Diane Aramini, 120 S. Applegate Rd., Ithaca, NY 14850. Please make checks payable Enfield Valley Grange # 295.

Our meetings are held on the 3rd Wednesday of each month at 7 p.m. If you think you might be interested in learning more about the Grange and what we do in our community, please feel free to join us at one of our meetings.

Respectfully Submitted,
Diane Aramini, Treasurer

HeatSmart Tompkins

It's not too early to prepare for next winter's bite, and HeatSmart Tompkins is ready to help! Some have their wood stacked and most are hoping fossil fuel prices don't go up. In fact, 75 percent of home energy use goes towards heating and cooling our homes, and it is almost all based on fossil fuel use. This fact motivated volunteer-led Solar Tompkins to focus on the best solution that is both cost effective and would greatly reduce our dependence on fossil fuels. The solution for our climate is to heat and cool with heat pumps. Not everyone is familiar with heat pumps, how amazingly efficient and cost-effective they are, so Solar Tompkins has launched a new program, HeatSmart Tompkins, to make adoption easy and simple.

The HeatSmart Tompkins initiative aims to accelerate the transition of home-heating away from fossil fuels via deployment of super-efficient air- and ground-source heat pumps in combination with improvement of building efficiency through better insulation and air sealing. HeatSmart Tompkins will be modeled after last year's tremendously successful solar PV program. Starting in early September when people are really thinking about the approaching winter, there will be educational public meetings in every Town and the City of Ithaca. You can sign up now on SolarTompkins.org to get updates on the meeting schedule as it develops and other 'hot news' items on the HeatSmart program.

HeatSmart Tompkins public meetings are designed to make the transition to greener and cost-effective home heating a simple process. They are a one-stop opportunity to get an educational overview of how home air-sealing and insulation steps can save you money, and exactly how heat pumps can fit into your home heating needs. By the end of one of these meetings you will know why air and ground-source heat pumps are being identified as a huge opportunity all across the country. They run on electricity, so they can be powered by renewable energy. They are also super-efficient, and often cost less than other heating options! What does super-efficient mean? It means that two or three times as much heating gets delivered to a home's living space with a heat pump as a conventional electric heater could do for the same amount of electricity. And the best part is that it's common technology! It's well-tested and proven with a great track-record and ready for full-scale adoption in all our communities.

Last year's Solar PV program helped 400 homes make the transition to renewable electricity. At the same time, the program stimulated the solar PV market and generated over 70 new, living-wage jobs, over 50 of those locally based. It was good for the environment, for household budgets, and the whole local economy. Solar Tompkins hopes to achieve similar and greater results with the HeatSmart program, and help bring us another big step towards being a prosperous and sustainable community.

Earn $50 – and Big Energy Savings – by Recycling Your Old Refrigerator

NYSEG's refrigerator and freezer recycling program offers the company's residential electricity customers a $50 check for recycling an old, working refrigerator or freezer. And the benefits don't stop there – getting rid of that energy hog can save up to $150 a year in electricity costs.

Refrigerators and freezers are dismantled and recycled by NYSEG's program partner, JACO Environmental. Materials from recycled refrigerators and freezers are used in paving and even to make new items such as cell phones and soda cans. Getting rid of an old refrigerator or freezer is simple.

1. Call 1.877.691.0021 or visit nyseg.com/energyefficiencyprograms/recycle to arrange a convenient time for pick up.
2. The appliance is transported to a recycling facility where hazardous materials are removed, and 95 percent of the materials are reclaimed for reuse.
3. You'll receive a check for $50 approximately six weeks after the pickup date. Schedule your pickup time today. For more money-saving tips, visit nyseg.com.
