

19. Woodside Inn photograph dated 1945.

Woodside Inn was built in 1939 by Chauncey McKeegan. The site was a part of the Rodrick Byrum farm. In 1952 Alfred and Helen Reed purchased the building from George and Dot Bailey. Elton Musto was a partner in the business for about one year until the Reeds bought him out. After Alfred's death Helen sold the Inn to Richard McDougal in 1974. Woodside burned to the ground during the morning hours of April 19, 1975.

In November 1975, Bud and Dorothy Leonard with children Mark and Marlena purchased the property. Chuck Hubbell of Hubbell Construction Co. was the contractor building the Inn. They opened on May 9, 1976. Steve and Mario Shippas bought the Inn in 1977

A few of the Community events which were held there were: the Enfield Volunteer Fire Company Ladies Auxiliary Annual Banquet; chicken Barbeques; pancake breakfast fund raiser for a family who lost their home due to fire in 1977; Mecklenburg Fire Company Banquets. In the winter storm of February 1966 the Inn along with Newhart's Store provided warm meals to Highway employees who worked from Sunday through Tuesday keeping the roads clear.

Entertainment was live every weekend with "Austin & Chuck" Thursday night, "Tequila Sunrise" Friday nights and "Country Sounds" Saturday.

The Inn changed owners in 1981 and opened up as Kuma Disco.

Menu — V

Dinner

Why at times the appearance of slow service . . .

Often several parties arrive at about the same time. Our orders are individually prepared as received.

Instead of cooking food ahead, as is the general commercial method, we prepare each food order separately. This takes more time and labor but the results are worth the time of waiting.

The discriminating public will appreciate that there is a time element in properly preparing foods.

The waitress will gladly accept the return of any food that is not perfect in appearance, temperature, seasoning, etc. This is the service you should receive.

THE MOST IMPORTANT NOTICE
Boisterous or intoxicated persons are a nuisance.

WE WILL NOT SERVE THEM.

We fill orders to be taken home.
